

Directions to RPEL London office

Address: Level 3, Kirkman House
12-14 Whitfield Street
London, W1T 2RF

The nearest tube station to the office is Goadge Street station on the Northern Line, which is roughly about a 2 minute walk away.

- On exiting the station, turn right and walk about 20 yards until you get to Goadge Street, which is on your right hand-side.
- Turn right into Goadge Street and then take your first left down Whitfield Street (there is a Spaghetti House on the corner).
- Continue about halfway down Whitfield Street, where you will see the British Transport Police; we are the building next door.

You can also travel to Warren Street station on the Victoria Line or Tottenham Court Road Station, which is on the Northern and Central Line. Both stations are about a 5 minute walk away, along Tottenham Court Road.

When travelling to the Retail Profile office, it is advisable not to travel by car unless necessary. Parking can be very difficult and of course you will have to pay for the congestion charge into London.
